Good morning, Chris. Just wanted to give you an update on where we are.

The OCIO's office just today gave us the requested email communications. We have a meeting scheduled for tomorrow to review and at that time GSA will determine a final cost based on the amount of data involved and the man hours needed to review, so we can be responsive to your request. We can then determine if/what parts of the response can be broken out into segregable portions.

Thank you for your patience and will be in touch by the end of the week.

The OCIO's office still has not given us the emails to review per the original request. That process is not something we can control.

We will look tomorrow to review the other items if they can be provided while we wait for the email pull.

Thanks,
Dallas

Dear Dallas and Joe,

Another two months have passed and we have not heard anything from the GSA regarding the status of the above-referenced request. I note that this request was submitted over 7 months ago on February 23, 2018. Despite the 20-day time limit to respond, the GSA also did not acknowledge the request until more than three months after it was submitted, which has resulted in additional delays. We have since made efforts to facilitate a response by substantially narrowing the scope of the request.

As you know, Penske is in pending litigation related to the GSA contract award at issue in the request. Based on the nature of the allegations, Penske has good cause to believe that the requested information is directly relevant to the litigation and is critical to the assessment of its potential damages. Accordingly, Penske requests that the GSA (1) provide a reasonable estimated timeline for processing, and (2) immediately produce any "reasonably segregable portion" of the responsive records that are not subject to the Act's exemptions under 5 U.S.C. section 552(b). I have attached GSA FOIA Public Liaison Audrey Corbett Brooks with the hope of bringing a speedy resolution to this pending request.

We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Christopher Conti
